City of Bloomington Latino Outreach Programs and Community Partners Sponsor "Refugees Welcome Here" Fundraiser

Bloomington, Ind. - The City of Bloomington's Latino Outreach Program is partnering with housing co-op Bloomington Cooperative Living and two local restaurants to sponsor a fundraiser for migrants at the southern border and in Bloomington. In observance of Labor Day, the "Refugees Welcome Here" fundraiser September 2 and 5 will provide funds for three migrant support organizations: the Bloomington Refugee Support Network, the Trans Liberation Coalition, and Contra Viento y Marea. Participating restaurant King Dough (108 West 6th Street) will donate 10 percent of their proceeds from sales on Monday, September 2, and BJ's (411 South College Mall Road) will donate 20 percent of their proceeds from sales Thursday, September 5.
