

EVENTS OF INTEREST FOR FEBRUARY AND MARCH 2020

Remember that tomorrow, Feb. 10, is the deadline for responding to USCIS' proposed (massive) fee increase in many applications required for those seeking asylum and citizenship.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, from 3-4 p.m., (new El Centro office: MCPL Room 206)

QUARTERLY LATINO HEALTH MEETING

This quarterly meeting is a chance to hear updates about health & mental health services for Latino residents in our area, and to brainstorm about issues regarding service and language access. Please send in agenda items.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, from 4-6 p.m.: Ivy Tech Community College (200 Daniels Way

DIVERSITY SPEAKER SERIES, Featuring Angela Adams

Panel Discussion to follow, with Joseph Suschetti, Lillian Casillas, and Pete Lenzen (of BRSN, with expertise and experience in working with immigrants)

Event will be held in Shreve Hall. Event is free and open to the public.

NOTE: Angela D. Adams is the owner and managing attorney at Adams Immigration Law LLC, where she handles all types of immigration cases. Ms. Adams has practiced immigration law for over 15 years. She previously served as Associate General Counsel for immigration at IU. She is past chapter chair of the Indiana Chapter of American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), a former consultant for the National Immigrant Forum in D.C., and has been recognized for her advocacy work in immigration, both locally and nationally.

SAVE THE DATES:

There will be a film series, "The Consequences of Enduring Conflict: Exploring Israeli-Palestinian Relations" on various dates in March and April:

March 12, at 7:00 p.m., "5 Broken Cameras" at IU Cinema

April 3 and 4, "When Pigs Have Wings", at the Ryder

April 30 at 7:00 p.m., "Tel Aviv on Fire" at IU Cinema