

EVENTS OF INTEREST FOR MARCH and APRIL, 2020

FILM SERIES: The Consequences of Enduring Conflict: Exploring Israeli-Palestinian Relations

For the following movies at IU Cinema, visit cinema.indiana.edu for tickets (most are free, but ticketed).

March 12, at 7:00 p.m., Movie: "Five Broken Cameras", at IU Cinema

April 3 and April 4, Movie: "When Pigs Have Wings", at the Ryder (117 E. 3rd)

April 30 at 7:00 p.m., Movie: "Tel Aviv on Fire" at IU Cinema

THURSDAY, MARCH 5, The 5th Annual "America's Role in the World", GISB

9:30-9:45 a.m., Welcome by Ambassador Lee Feinstein

9:45-11:00 a.m., Climate Change and the American Public

11:15-12:30 p.m., National Security Challenges in the 2020's

FRIDAY, MARCH 6, The 5th Annual "America's Role in the World", GISB (2nd day)

9:00-9:45 a.m., Senator Todd Young

10:00-11:15 a.m., Presidential Elections and U.S. Foreign Policy

11:45-1:00 p.m., Ambassador Marie Yovanovitch, former Ambassador to Ukraine and Ambassador Lee Feinstein

2:30-3:45 p.m., U.S.-China Relations

4:00-5:15 p.m., The Foreign Policy Inbox (intro. by Rep. Lee H. Hamilton)

FRIDAY, MARCH 6, at 4:30 p.m., Weatherly Hall (400 N. Sunrise Drive)

The 2020 Paul Lucas Conference Lecture: "The Anatomy of Crisis: Meeting the Current Moment Through Entangled Histories"

This is an important lecture in immigration history.

Organized by IU's History Department's graduate students

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, at 11:30 a.m., in Convention Center

Women's History Month Luncheon (celebrating 100th anniversary of women's suffrage, along with other issues)

THURSDAY, APRIL 9, from 1:30-3:30, at IMU (Room TBA), Social Justice Fair

Theme: Defending Democracy"

Special Workshop 1:30-3:30, "Catch the vision of Freedom: Remaking Bloomington in Our Collective Image"

BRSN has been offered 2 free tickets; we must respond by March 13

THURSDAY, APRIL 9, from 8:15 p.m., at IMU Solarium, Social Justice Fair (cont'd)

Theme: Defending Democracy"

BRSN will have an informational table, along with other social justice orgs.